- Privacy policy

Techster value and respect your privacy. We ensure that the collection and processing of personal data will always be carried out responsibly and according to current legislation.

This privacy policy describes how the company collects and processes personal data when using the Techsters's services or when visiting our website <https://techster.se>.

Techster's handling of personal data on the company's website

No personal data that visitors have not consciously provided will be saved. Temporarily, during your visit, information may be stored to ensure the functionality of the web, for example, to make sure that login works.

What private information will we be collecting?

We will be collecting private information:

1. To fulfill agreements
2. To fulfill legal obligations
3. Weighing of interests

Legal basis for processing personal data at Techster

All processing and storage of personal data at Techster shall be done in a lawful, fair, and transparent manner in relation to the data subject. The conditions that describe what constitutes lawful processing, which Techster refers to, are the performance of a contract, compliance with a legal obligation, and consent. These conditions are described below.

Contract: The data subject has a contract or is to enter a contract with the data controller. Your data will be stored as long as you have a contract or as long as a legal claim exists.

Automated decisions: No

Legal obligation: There are laws and rules that oblige the data controller to process certain personal data in its activities. Your data will be stored as long as we are obliged to save the data in accordance with the applicable law or authority decision or as long as there is a legal claim.

Automated decisions: No

Weighing of interests: The data controller may process personal data without the data subject's consent if the data controller's interests outweigh those of the data subject and if the processing is necessary for the purpose in question. Your data will be stored as long as its deemed necessary and our interests outweigh those of the data subject.

The data subject's rights

The data subject has the right to be given information when his or her personal data is processed. Information about the personal data processing is to be given by the controller both when the data is collected and when the data subject otherwise so requests. There are also certain other occasions when information is to be provided to the data subject, for example if the controller suffers a data intrusion or similar (a personal data breach) and there is a risk of, for example, identity theft or fraud.

Security data protection

Techster has taken appropriate technical and organizational measures to prevent unauthorized access, loss, abuse and manipulation of data in accordance with the data protection legislation.

Supervisory authority

IMY, Integritetsskyddsmyndigheten, is the authority responsible for monitoring the application of data protection legislation.
